

Men's Ministry Jumpstart Workshop

Strategizing Together
to Reach & Build Men

What It Is

An uncompromising, unapologetic look at the value and importance of men.

A challenge to replace the status quo of languid men's discipleship with conviction that building men is key to healthy marriages, families, communities, and the church.

Development of an action plan to institute a flourishing men's ministry, which develops godly leaders in the home, community, and church.

How It Works

Discussion-Centered

Led by Brad Smith, former church and community men's ministry director and founder and president of Men of Valor (menofvalor.org).

Interactive

Five decision-making, strategically guided discussions identifying realistic local application.

PURPOSE

Many churches have little or no men-centered, men-focused discipleship. But because men are the key to successful marriages, families, churches, and communities, an intentional men's ministry is crucial to healthy homes and churches. Done well, a ministry to and through men will attract and keep men growing in Christ and building His Kingdom! This workshop will help you start/organize/revive a thriving men's ministry!
